

2018 FALL LEADERSHIP LADIES LUNCHEON

The Conrad-Caldwell House Museum

The home was completed in 1895 and has been lovingly restored to the Edwardian Age. It houses a massive collection of period items including many original pieces and stands as a testament to the abundant lifestyle of the owners, two of Louisville's most prominent businessmen and entrepreneurs, Theophile Conrad and William E. Caldwell. Step back in time as you learn more about the era, the neighborhood, and the families who lived here.

WHEN: Saturday, September 29, 2018

Registration fee ($32) includes tour of the house and a Victorian Tea. Please check your registration packet for scheduled time of bus departure from The Brown Hotel.
